238 JAGUAR MK. 10 SALOON 6/11

A model of models. A thoroughbred of miniatures. A Corgi model. It is loaded with features and captures all the graceful power of the original with its long flowing lines. There's an entirely new 'first' in the boot—luggage you can take out and open. Press the front of the bonnet down and the bonnet opens to reveal a detailed engine. Note the twin-jewelled head lights that sparkle diamond bright. Test the Glidomatic spring suspension. And as always, this Corgi model has seats, steering wheel and windows.

Length  $4\frac{1}{2}$  inches 108 mm

Length  $4\frac{1}{2}$  inches 114 mm
The model uses either Vidor V0028 or Ever Ready U.12 batteries or the equivalent.

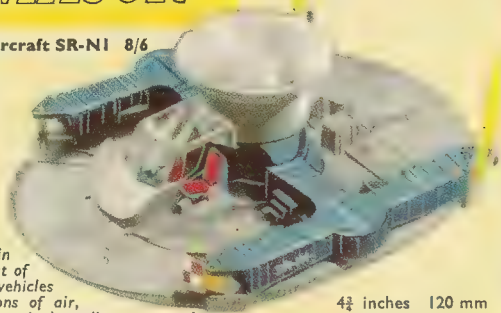

This Corgi model has another 'first'—FIVE battery-operated flashing lights! But as only one bulb illuminates all lights, the battery lasts for ages. Changing battery or bulb takes only seconds. All you have to do is unclip the power-pack, lift out bulb or battery, put new one in, clip power-pack into place. And once in it stays there! The model has a cut-out switch so you can stop the lights flashing when you like, to avoid battery wastage. No other model has such a simple power-pack system. The model also has windows, seats, steering wheel and Glidomatic spring suspension.
